

AMERICANS CAPTURE OVER 5,000 PRISONERS

PENETRATE GERMAN LINES SEVEN MILES OVER 20 MILE FRONT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Attacking this morning over a front of twenty miles, west of Verdun in co-operation with the French, the American first army advanced to an average depth of seven miles and captured twelve towns and more than 5,000 prisoners.

Four of the towns were carried by storm by Pennsylvania, Kansas and Missouri troops and Major General Liggett's corps, General Pershing said in his official statement on the battle received tonight at the war department. The enemy offered stubborn resistance.

Troops of other corps forced their way across the Forges Brook, took the Bois de Forges and wrested eight towns from the enemy.

General Pershing's communique follows:

"Section A: This morning northwest of Verdun the first army attacked the enemy on a front of twenty miles and penetrated his line to an average depth of seven miles.

"Pennsylvania, Kansas and Missouri troops serving in Major General Liggett's corps stormed Varennes, Montblainville, Vauquois and Chapy after stubborn resistance. Troops of other corps, crossing the Forges Brook, captured Bois de Forges and wrested from the enemy the towns of Malancourt, Bethincourt, Montfaucon, Cuisy, Nantillois, Zeptzarges, Danneux and Gercourt-et-Drillancourt. The prisoners thus far reported number over five thousand."

The Pennsylvania troops referred to by General Pershing evidently are those forming the twenty-eighth (National Guard) division, while the Kansas and Missouri troops make up the thirty-fifth (National Guard) division. At last accounts the 28th division was under Major General C. H. Muir and the 35th under Major General W. R. Smith. As the army corps originally were announced these two divisions were in the second corps under Major General Robert Lee Bullard.

The twenty-eighth, or "Iron" Division, had been in hard fighting heretofore, having held the center of the American line in the advance across the Ourcq July 26 to 31, during the beginning of the general allied offensive when the Aisne-Marne salient was wiped out. They remained on the line until August 6, advancing to Fismes, where they were relieved by the thirty-second (National Guard) division.

The thirty-fifth landed in France last June 9 and went on the firing line eleven days later. They were last reported on the Vosges front, Sept. 4th.

French Operate in Conjunction

With the French Army on the Champagne Front, Sept. 26.—By the Associated Press.—Troops of the French army operating in conjunction with the Americans in a new battle along the Champagne front, have today conquered positions that the Germans have been fortifying for four years, positions that they have sacrificed thousands of men to hold. The French losses have been remarkably light, in spite of the fact that the German resistance stiffened this afternoon.

General Gouraud's soldiers who advanced to those positions three years ago and have been facing them ever since are now enjoying a particular satisfaction in being them.

The battle of Champagne in 1915, the taking of these positions would have demanded a sacrifice that the strategic advantage to be gained then did not warrant. The situation is changed now. Successive blows administered to the Germans on different parts of the front give a different meaning to the attack. The number of prisoners taken by the French is increasing steadily. They are filling back by all roads in groups of from a score to several hundred. Among them there is a larger proportion of very young men than heretofore taken. Some of the captives are recruits of the 1920 contingent.

They are leaving behind them scores of burning villages. Thirty had been observed in flames up to noon today. Even this additional and unjustifiable devastation scarcely adds to the desolation that had been spread all over this sharply disputed ground.

The ridges are covered thickly with shell holes that touch each other everywhere, all vestiges of vegetation long ago disappeared, the surface of the ground giving the impression that it must have been reduced to a state of mud violently churned and left to dry. The ground is crossed and crisscrossed in every direction by trenches that have been blown out of shape.

A feature of today's operations was the activity of the enemy army which furnished several encounters with French observation balloons and anti-aircraft artillery. White puffs from the French shrapnel were seen everywhere over the field.

Whole Front Covers 40 Miles
Washington, Sept. 26.—The keystone of the great defensive arch in France is under assault in the Franco-American offensive launched this morning in the Champagne over a front of forty miles.

Because of the place of attack selected by Marshal Poch military officials regard the new blow as one of wide strategic possibilities. It was not until General Pershing's official statement arrived late tonight that a definite idea was given as to the extent and success of the initial rush. The Americans advanced on a front of twenty miles to an average more than five thousand prisoners and twelve towns. The French war office previously had reported that the French troops farther west had advanced four miles at certain points.

Hurricane Off Western Coast Damages Vessels

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 26.—In a hurricane that raged off the lower California and northwest coast of Mexico last Tuesday two United States shipping board vessels on their maiden trips were sunk; a fleet of other craft was badly battered; the lower California town of LaPaz was partly destroyed and the floating equipment of the United States naval coal depot at Pichilique was damaged. News of the storm was brought here today by a long overdue shipping launch.

Several residents of LaPaz were reported killed. The crews of the vessels sunk were rescued by passing steamers after being adrift three days in open boats.

The United States shipping board vessels that foundered after a terrific battle with mountainous seas were the steel steamer Blackford, northbound from an Atlantic Port with a cargo of three thousand tons of coal and the wooden steamer Coos Bay bound south in ballast.

William A. Brown, first mate of the Blackford, who arrived here as a passenger on the launch from Magdalena Bay, described the loss of the Blackford. He said the steamer foundered about 250 miles south of Magdalena Bay. Huge seas smashed the ship's rudder into driftwood. At the mercy of the waves it was seen that the craft could no longer remain afloat. The crew of forty six men were then ordered into life boats. Three days afterward the life boats were picked up by an oil tanker which with the crew of the Blackford aboard remained in the south short of fuel and provisions. No details of the loss of the Coos Bay have been reported here except that she foundered about fifty miles from where the Blackford went down. The crew were landed at a Mexican port.

The damage to the steamer of LaPaz, according to Brown will be heavy. Brick and wooden buildings he said were razed by the gale. The wharf at LaPaz is reported to have been almost totally destroyed. LaPaz has a population of about 3,000 and is a shipping point for practically all the agricultural and mine products of the northern part of lower California.

POSTPONE VOTE ON SUFFRAGE BILL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The senate failed again today to reach a vote on the house resolution proposing submission to the states of the Susan B. Anthony woman suffrage amendment to the constitution. After a day of conference and debate before crowded galleries the senate adjourned until tomorrow to continue the discussion but with little likelihood of a vote before next Saturday if then.

Absence of senators favoring the resolution, defections among its advocates were reported to have suffered an unexpected protraction of debate, contributed to postponement of action and to the disappointment of action and the throng of spectators which gathered in the early morning and remained throughout the day.

Chairman Jones announced that before pressing a vote managers of the resolution desired to await the return of Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, who favors the resolution and who was not "paired." He is returning from California, and is due in Washington late Saturday.

PERSHING AWARDS SERVICE CROSSES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—General Pershing reported today the award of the distinguished service cross to thirty-four enlisted men and officers of the American Expeditionary Forces and to one member of the French army for extraordinary heroism in action.
Of five crosses awarded posthumously, one went to Private Edward T. Vibbert, Benton, Ill.
Others who received their crosses include Private David N. Binkley, Ames, Ia.; and Private Walter D. Ballard, Redfield, Ia.

Morgan County's Liberty Loan Quota is $1,746,000.00

The following letter was sent last night to all bankers, precinct chairmen, assistant liberty bond salesmen and school directors identified with the Liberty Loan campaign:

Jacksonville, Ill., Sept. 26, 1918.

Bankers, Precinct Chairmen, Assistant Salesmen, School Directors:

Our official county allotment for the Fourth Liberty Loan is $1,746,000. Your precinct and school district allotments given below, are figured on the basis of eleven per cent of the assessed valuation of each school district, taken from the assessor's tax books. This eleven per cent is the approximately exact per cent of the total assessed valuation of the county, to make up the full county's quota. It has been necessary not to divide the school districts which overlap into two different voting precincts.

We are getting this information to you at the earliest possible moment and are sending the figures, so that you will see that the allotment is absolutely fair and equitable.

Please keep this letter as your official notification and hold yourself responsible for the raising of this amount. Urge your friends to subscribe their full share and increase it if possible, during the three Volunteer days. A man's share would, in most cases, figure at least eleven per cent of his own assessed valuation.

As soon as Volunteer Day returns are checked up, proper lists will be furnished you for personal solicitation for the completion of the work.

M. F. DUNLAP, County Chairman.
HARRY M. CAPPS, General Manager.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

Twelve towns and more than 5,000 German prisoners have been taken by American troops, fighting in conjunction with the French in a new offensive begun with the break of day Thursday in the region extending from the northwest of Verdun to within fifteen miles of the Cathedral City of Rheims.

The Americans advanced to a depth of seven miles overcoming the stubborn resistance of the enemy. Pennsylvania, Kansas and Missouri troops were among the fighting forces which in less than a day won territory of great importance to the enemy and further depleted the enemy line.

American troops have taken over a new sector in France, and in conjunction with the French have forced the Germans on the defensive on still another battle front.

The gauge of battle has been thrown down on a forty mile front extending from the Suppe river in Champagne fifteen miles east of Rheims, eastward thru the Argonne forest to the Meuse river northwest of Verdun.

In the first stage of the battle the allied lines were pushed forward for material gains, that portion northwest of Verdun held by the Americans to a depth of from five to six miles and that of the French to the west nearly four miles at certain points.

Under the terrific bombardment preceding the commencement of the battle the Germans hurriedly quit numerous positions and into these the Americans and French went unimpeded.

At last accounts the allied advance was progressing. British troops have invaded Bulgaria from the north of Lake Doiran in Macedonia, making another notable epoch in the history of the war.

Adversity continues with the Teutonic allies in southern Serbia and Palestine and the British and French are keeping up their maneuvers which are gradually bringing the important town of St. Quentin into their hands.

In Serbia the Serbs, Italians, Greeks and British are threatening the enemy forces with disaster by reason of their rapid advance and the state of confusion into which the Bulgarians and Germans have been thrown by the works of the offensive.

Likewise the Turks in Palestine are being badly harassed by the forces of the British General Allenby and the tribesmen of the king of the Hedjaz.

Almost surrounded east of the Jordan the Turks are frantically endeavoring to extricate themselves from the converging allied forces. From the east and south the British are driving the Ottomans northward and coming south to meet the enemy and to crush him between the two allied lines are the Arabs. Seemingly with all the crossings of the Jordan now in allied hands the Turkish fourth army has little chance to escape.

Taken in conjunction with the allied offensive, which has materially bent back the German front in Flanders, Artois and Picardy and along the Aisne, the new drive of Marshal Foch in the south will bear important fruit if it meets with success.

Driving northward the entire western battle front would be shaken and of necessity be compelled to readjust itself. Lateral railway lines of great importance to the German positions between Laon and Verdun lie directly in the path of the advancing Franco-American forces. Vouziers, an important railway junction on the main line from Laon to Metz is but twelve miles north of Servon, which already is in the hands of the French.

The Americans thru the capture of Gerolstein, northwest of Verdun are in Meuse valley, which leads northward to Sedan and a little farther west at Varennes have won the Aves Valley which winds in a northwesterly direction. Northwest of Verdun, Montfaucon a German strong point of great resisting power is said to be in American hands as are several other villages between the Meuse and the Aves.

Around St. Quentin both the British and French armies have made further advances against the Germans and repulsed heavy counter-attacks.

In Flanders and also near Arras, the British have advanced their fronts.

CRISIS IN BULGARIA

Paris, Sept. 26.—In well informed circles there are reports that a new ministerial crisis and a complete change in Bulgaria's foreign policy is impending.

WILL ARREST HOROES

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 26.—Railroad detectives of East St. Louis have been notified by Federal Manager Galloway that persons found "hobbing" their way on trains or steamboats shall be liable to arrest, fine and imprisonment under the war revenue act.

Governor Lowden Urges People to Buy Liberty Bonds

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Governor Lowden issued the following proclamation tonight, urging subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan:

"The Fourth Liberty Loan opens on Saturday, the 28th of September.

"I urge that people give proper recognition to the day; that they fly flags from their residences and their places of business and in every other way, show their hearty participation in this important event.

"When our boys first appeared on the battle front, our first feeling was of pride and then we asked ourselves what we could do to show our appreciation.

"Since then as they have appeared in ever increasing number in the lines of battle, our pride and our gratitude have increased. Many thousands of them have already given their lives that we may continue to enjoy the blessings of free government and of civilization. Many thousands of others are lying wounded in hospitals. Not so many—thank God—are in prison camps. As we read of our soldiers' exploits, we ask, again and again what we can do to prove ourselves worthy of them.

"As I write more than a million and a half of Americans in uniform are somewhere in France as willing to give their all as our comrades who have already fallen upon the battle-field. And now our opportunity has come to show that we appreciate, even if fortune does not permit us to imitate these heroes living and dead. Words, even emotions do not really count at a time like this, but only deeds!

"If we are grateful to our soldiers in the field, we will show it by subscribing to the new issue of Liberty Bonds. If we appreciate what they do and owe, we shall subscribe to more Liberty Bonds.

"If we would much, so far as we may, their deeds upon a score of battle fields they have made immortal we shall subscribe to still more Liberty Bonds. Now is the opportunity!

"We would have been content, if, for the present, our Allies and our soldiers had simply held their lines. Instead they have swept forward mile upon mile. Our soldiers in the field have oversubscribed and overpaid their undertaking!

"Shall we now fail to over-subscribe ours?"

OCTOBER D CALLS CANCELLED BY GEN. CROWD

Because of Epidemic of Influenza in the Army Camps

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Because of epidemics of Spanish influenza in army camps Provost Marshal General Crowder tonight cancelled calls for the entrance of 142,000 draft registrants.

In the twenty four hours ending at noon today 6,139 new cases of influenza in army camps had been reported to the army surgeon-general. One hundred and seventy deaths resulting chiefly from pneumonia following influenza and 723 new cases of pneumonia also were reported.

Two camps, Kearney, Calif., and Eustis, Va., were added today to the list of those where influenza has made its appearance. In only thirteen camps free from disease. The total number of cases of influenza reported was placed at 35,143. In every four men at Camp Massachusetts has contracted pneumonia. In camps where the entrance call for the entraining draft registrants early in the morning from General Marshall's staff. Every state and district of Columbia has been assigned quotas and the men are to have gone to practically all the camps in the country. The men probably will not be entrained until after the influenza epidemic has been checked. It was said at the office of the surgeon-general of the army tonight that every possible precaution is being taken in all camps to check the spread of the disease but despite all measures it is believed the disease will run its course and probably spread to still other camps.

Additional physicians and nurses have been sent to camps where the epidemic is most severe. The greatest number of new influenza cases 1,067 was reported today from Camp Dix. Where Camp Devens reported fewer cases, pneumonia showed an increase there, 309 new cases and 83 deaths being reported.

Influenza is also on the increase among the civilian population particularly in New England. Federal government has taken steps to co-operate with state and municipal authorities in combating the disease and medical nursing units are being mobilized in communities where the epidemic has gained great headway.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. T. G. TAYLOR.

The Rushville Times of recent date contains the following beautiful tribute to the life of the late Mrs. T. G. Taylor, written by her daughter, Mrs. Ida Scott McKinney:

Brought to Old Home for Burial.

Mrs. T. G. Taylor who removed to Los Angeles, Cal., with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Nolan, died in that city Sept. 11th following a paralytic stroke. The remains were brought to Rushville Monday accompanied by Mr. Nolan, and funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. at the R. H. Griffith home, conducted by Rev. H. W. Stillman. Interment in the Rushville cemetery.

Mrs. Taylor had made her home in this city for many years with her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Nolan, and had many dear friends here. A beautiful tribute to her memory, read at the funeral service is here given:

It has been truly said that "Heaven lies at the end of every good life." Our years are rounds of life's ladder, with its upper end at the gates of God. To be in love with Heaven is the surest way to be fitted for it. Laying up treasure there will draw the heart with it, "for where the treasure is, there will the heart be also."

The close of this beautiful life, after a span of four score years and ten, brings the pilgrim mother to the portals of glory—the open gates of the New Jerusalem. Her whole earthly journey has been a preparation for this triumphal entrance.

Often has she quoted, with reverence, voice and radiant countenance: "Eve hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him."

The latter years of her life have been like the sailing of an outboard ship on peaceful waters. Each day the heavenly breezes have wafted her a little nearer port and left a brighter radiance on her face. She was a Christian who lived her Christianity, and made its sincerity felt by all around her. Many lives were led by her to an acceptance of the Savior she loved and trusted. Her faith in God was like a candle illumining the darkest night. Its light never failed. She kept her lamp trimmed and burning. Could she speak to each one of us today her message would be, "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh." So let us follow on until we, too, shall come into the blessedness of those who love God and shall dwell with Him to all eternity.

This friend whose memory we honor today, was born "neath southern skies in old Kentucky, and was the only daughter of Edward F. and Mary H. Chappell. At the age of twenty-one she was married to Thomas G. Taylor, coming west with him to Springfield, Ill., shortly afterwards.

From these they moved in a few years to Jacksonville, and resided there many years. After the marriage of their three children they made their home among them, in Rushville, Ill., and DeWitt, Iowa. Mr. Taylor was called to his heavenly home in January 1908, at the age of 82 years.

During the last five years Mrs. Taylor has made her home in Rushville, where the beautiful devotion of her eldest daughter, Mrs. Nolan and kindness of Mr. Nolan, have helped make life a daily and hourly blessing. They have made three return trips to California in the past five years, coming for a fourth time in June of the present year. California and its fruits and flowers was a great joy to this dear mother, and she once said, "God must have loved California to make it so beautiful."

Here was a remarkable life, and those who knew her best recognized her many gifts and graces. Her mentality was spared thru the long span of her life and her memory was truly wonderful. She committed to memory the entire 39 verses of the 8th chapter of Romans, the past five years, and her mind was enriched by many other beautiful chapters from the Word of God. The Shepherd's Psalm was the guide of her daily life, and when the shadows were gathering over her, her lips framed the comforting words. She could quote from the old poets, Moore, Campbell, Byron and Pope, even since her last trip to California.

But her mind and conversation were of Heaven and its literature was her daily study, and she made her life a constant preparation for a glorious immortality. Gifted with a beautiful voice she gave its sweetest and best service to singing the songs of Zion. The church, Sunday school and prayer meetings were strengthened and inspired by her uplifted songs, and she gave comfort and consolation to the sick and dying, as she sang to them of the Home of the Soul.

Her life was crowned by a beautiful and devoted wifehood and motherhood. She was the heart of her home; husband and children centered around her and trusted in her, and were cheered and encouraged by the sunshine of her presence. Life was always at its best with her. She arose above its vicissitudes and gave of her gladness to others. No one could be despondent in her presence or fail to find comfort and help in time of need.

We who are left can but feel the strength and beauty of her consecrated Christian life and thank God for the benediction of it, and that it was lived for His glory and the good of humanity. She has trod the pathway of her earthly pilgrimage with patience, humility and sweetness, and glimpsed the splendors of the Homeland with her hand in her Savior's, filled with perfect love and trust. We who wait a little longer here catch thy inspiration of her pure spirit, and speak to her in these parting words to the Christian just going home: Sleep on, beloved, sleep and take thy rest. Lay down thy head upon thy Savior's breast. We love thee well but Jesus loves thee best— Good night.

Stop Corn Pains; See Corn Peel Off.

It is just when a corn hurts that you want to feel about getting rid of it. Why take chances of keeping the corn and having the pain grow worse? You'll use "Gets-It."

The Only Peelt-Off Way Is "Gets-It."

"Gets-It" anyhow, sooner or later, might as well use it sooner. Then you are absolutely sure that the corn will loosen from your toe so that you can peel the whole thing off painlessly with your fingers, in one complete piece—just like peeling a banana. It takes a second or two to apply "Gets-It." There's no fussing or putting. Corn-pains will vanish—that'll keep you sweet while the "Gets-It" does the rest. Nothing new for corns has been discovered since "Gets-It" was born. Follow the judgment of the millions; use "Gets-It" and be sure to be corn and pain free! You'll say it's magic. "Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Sold by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. YOUR BOND OBLIGATION

H. M. Capps, general manager of the local campaign, said last night that a copy of the letter quoted above had been sent to each person thruout the county associated with Liberty Loan organization plans. This means that at least 400 people will receive the letter. As the bond quota for the county of $1,746,000 equals practically 11% of the assessed valuation of the county, so the quota allotment of each voting precinct and for each school district is 11% of the assessed valuation of such precinct or district. In figuring out the amount of the bonds which they can reasonably be expected to purchase, people can use these same figures and purchase bonds to the amount of 11% of the assessed valuation of their property.

It is recognized that this general rule will not apply in every instance. There are persons who own realty carrying mortgages and so the assessed valuation of the property does not represent their real worth. Then there are a great many persons who are wealthy or in very comfortable circumstances who own little or no realty. So in the computation the "rule of reason" must be applied and every person must meet the issue with honesty and sincerity. Now that the allotment for each precinct and district has been so carefully worked out, it will be the part of patriotism for all people to quickly figure out the amount of bonds for which they are obligated and then to sign the subscription card.

You are urged to go to your banker tomorrow and sign a card for the bonds you take, choosing the payment plan which is best adapted to your financial circumstances. If you do not thoroughly understand all the particulars about the loan consult your banker and the facts will be quickly given. Subscribing during volunteer days will help in maintaining the good name of Morgan county and will relieve the campaign committee of a vast amount of solicitation work.

"With the Colors"

Letters of Interest from Jacksonville Boys in the Country's Service.

From Lieut. Paul Strawn.

Mrs. James G. Strawn has received the following letter from the wife of her son, Paul, regarding the funeral of John Widenham.

Dallas, Texas,
Sept. 19, 1918.

Dearest Folks:

Paul has started for Los Angeles, California with the body of Lieut. John Widenham who was killed here day before yesterday. He is to conduct a military funeral from the boy's home. They had one here before they left which was at 12 today. It certainly was beautiful and every one remarked how reserved and lovely Paul was. This is considered a great honor so we are proud Paul was chosen as the one to take him home. He has with him the largest piece of the boy's ship left after he smashed. It is only 14 inches long so you can imagine what a fall he had. When he fell he was in a cross country trip; the cause of the accident is unknown. He fell just a little this side of Fort Worth. When the deal wagon got to him they couldn't tell who it was but found the number of his ship and who went up in it last. They then called the roll and found he was missing. He was a good friend of Paul and some time ago lived in Jacksonville and that was how Paul was acquainted with him.

Paul has with him a large American flag eight feet long and five feet wide which is to be buried with him. Certainly it is sorrowful. They had an escort of 25 air ships that flew over the train five miles out of the city, dropping roses over the train; I wish you could have seen it.

Another man was killed the same day and hour 11 a. m. He left a wife and little baby. His wife came here three days ago to be with him and was on the field when they brought the body in. It is a pitiful sight. The man was 25 years old and the baby two years old. Will send Paul's address so you can write to him.

Nothing more except the news I wrote you in my last letter. Paul will be gone ten or twelve days and I will stay here till he returns. My love to all the family.

Devotedly,
Claire Iona.

From William Allcott.
Lee P. Allcott and family have received the following letter from William L. Allcott, somewhere in France.

On Active Service With American Expeditionary Forces
Aug. 25, 1918.

My Dear Folks:
Just returned from a wonderful trip to Paris for three days. Another friend and I made the trip together. I will be mighty hard to tell you just what I saw there but will say that there were very few places of interest that we missed. Have just checked up the places we visited which numbered 39, so you can see we didn't waste any time. We did all our traveling by taxi. Paris is a wonderful city all the way thru. Wonderful subway system, buildings, boulevards, mademoiselles, etc.

Stayed at one of the largest hotels and took in two of the most noted cafes in Paris. Had dinner one night with Byron Graft and four other lieutenants. Ate most of meals at the Y. M. C. A. and they have very reasonable meals, about 75 cents in our money. The Y also have a machine that you can rent for five francs or about $1.00 in our money to see Paris in and it takes in the city thoroly.

Rode taxis every place I went so we wouldn't lose any time. Taxi service is very cheap but this is the only thing that is cheap. Am feeling just fine and hope you all are well also.

I sent you a little picture book of Paris.
One thing that took my eyes was the classy styles the mademoiselles wore. Buildings in Paris are not more than 6 or 7 stories at the most, but they have awfully good looking ones. The small shops are very attractive. Will close for this time. Love to you all.

Your loving son,

EXEMPTION BOARD NEWS

Mrs. George Ingrund is now assisting regularly at the office of the local board and will be on duty for at least until after the present questionnaire rush is over. Aitho so much record work is now being done in the office, it is impossible to keep ahead of the work. The questionnaires are coming in steadily and there is no question but that the total number will be filed within the required time.

The local board yesterday received a notification from the adjutant general that 60 men from Morgan county would leave on October 8 at 9:45 o'clock a. m. for Camp McClellan, Anniston, Ala. However, an order issued last night cancels this October call on account of the prevalence of Spanish influenza at army cantonments. It is therefore assumed that cancellation order will be received by the local board today.

W. L. SIMPSON DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Deceased Associated With Railroad Business in Jacksonville for Many Years — Had Sturdy Qualities of Scotch Parents.

The death of Walter L. Simpson, one of the best known residents of Jacksonville, occurred at his home on North Church street, about 8:25 o'clock Thursday night. Mr. Simpson, who had long been associated with the business interests of Jacksonville as local representative of the Wabash railroad, had been ill for several years and his retirement from his position was necessitated by failing health.

Altho so long in a weakened state, those who knew Mr. Simpson intimately can testify to his unflinching strength of heart and soul. He met affliction with a calmness of spirit and a resignation which was indeed an inspiration to those who came in touch with his home life. Thru a long period of years Mrs. Simpson was an invalid and the deceased gave to her the tenderest care and devotion. It was just two months since that Mrs. Simpson passed away, her death having occurred July 27, 1918.

Born in Scotland

Walter L. Simpson was the son of Alexander Simpson, a Scotland banker and miller, who came to America in 1859. For a time the family lived at Woodson in this county and subsequent to the death of the father, Walter Simpson and his brother, John Henry, returned to Scotland where for two years they attended school in the town of Turf. Shortly afterward Walter Simpson came again to the U. S. and finished his education at the high school in Jacksonville. Subsequently he engaged in farming and was married July 16, 1875, to Miss Emma B. Wyatt. They established a farm home and then in 1880 removed to Jacksonville. It was that year that Mr. Simpson took a position in the office of the Wabash railway and passed thru a series of promotions until he became the local agent for the company. For considerably more than thirty years he maintained his relations with that company, retiring only when failing health made his action necessary.

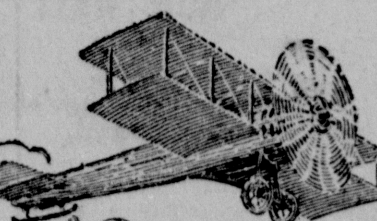

Faithful in All Things

The faithfulness which characterized him in other affairs of life marked his relationships with the Wabash road and he ranked as one of the oldest and most trusted employees of the system. Mr. Simpson was a member of Central Christian church and before coming to Jacksonville had been a member of the Woodson church. For a long period of years he was a deacon in the church here and his devotion to the church and his willingness to serve in any capacity marked his every day life. As a member of that church he lived consistently and the pastors who came and went with passing years always found in him a member upon whom they could depend for friendship and support.

The deceased was also very much interested in the Masonic order and was a member of Jacksonville lodge No. 570 and Jacksonville chapter No. 3. He was especially well posted in Masonic history and forms. The deceased is survived by four children: Mrs. W. R. Barney of Drumright, Oklahoma; Miss Minnie T. Simpson, at home; William H. Simpson, Ft. Smith, Ark., and Mrs. Davis W. Martin, Patterson, N. Y. He is survived also by one sister, Miss Fannie McAllister, living in California. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make Bleaching Lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sun-burn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

Can't Help But Admire Babies

Every Woman Casts Loving Glance at the Nestling Cuddled in its Bonnet.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much talked of pains and other distresses that are said to proceed child-bearing may be avoided. No man need fear discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well known and time honored remedy, Mother's Friend.

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once softens and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. By regular use the muscles expand without the usual strain when baby is born and pain and danger at the crisis is consequently less.

Women everywhere who have used this famous remedy tell how they entirely avoided nervousness, twitching spells, bearing down and stretching pains, and relate how they enjoyed entire freedom from the many debilitating and distressing experiences usually incident to approaching motherhood.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommended it. It is for external use only, is absolutely and entirely safe and wonderfully effective.

Write the Bradford Regulator Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their "Motherhood Book," so valuable to expectant mothers, and in the meantime obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist today and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

Wheat Smut

A good many farmers have raised wheat every year for many years without having smutty wheat. In fact some have never seen the stinking smut that is the cause of the present campaign.

There were four parts of our county that had some smut infection this season, namely a farm north-west of Mayville, two or three farms southwest of Franklin, one farm west of Prentice, and a small amount in the vicinity of Joy Prairie. These places are not mentioned for unfavorable advertising but to emphasize the fact stinking smut is a reality in this county, and there is a reason for creating seed wheat in some localities.

If you have never seen or smelled the real article there is a sample of infected wheat in the county agent's office that is so plain that a wayfarer man, so a fool, should not ere therein.

This sample was grown on a Morgan county farm and was given to the county agent by an elevator man in this county. Better invest in a bottle of formaldehyde this time and play the game safe.

Elevator Men's Troubles Every man in this grain business is supposed to have his troubles except the elevator man. They are no exception. At least, two elevator men have told of buying wheat that had small amounts of smut in it and receiving a dockage at the terminal on the entire car load that made the profits look like a negative quantity in algebra. Still another paid well for wheat and filled his elevator, could get no cars, could make no room for oats and saw the other fellows handle the oats.

Another has quite a lot of corn that he paid well for and might have sold at $1.80, but he could not get it on the road for love or money, and the market is going in the wrong direction. Finally there is another who had a car fixed up with grain doors ready to load with wheat, but could get no permit. The agent told him demurrage charges would soon begin. In his dilemma he took out the grain doors, removed the paper and told the agent to take the car. The elevator man has his troubles as well as the rest of mankind.

Forage Crops Frank Drury has a field of rape seeded in oats that is worth more than a passing glance. In many cases the rape does not make a very good showing when seeded in grain, but in that field south of the Wabash, it is certainly up and coming. It looks as though there were tons of hog feed in that field. The time is not far distant when for economy's sake we will find it a decided advantage to grow extensively forage crops, and save labor by letting the animals gather the crop.

South of Lynnville the other day on the farm of Fred J. Schofield one could see steers, hogs and sheep at work in the same cornfield. Very few would be willing to make that venture without some one else's experience to guide them. However, the animals had been in the field for several days and the owner had not noticed the slightest ill effect. All had been accustomed to the feed before being turned into the field. With the scarcity of labor, our farmers are certainly taking some short cuts to save labor.

Seed Corn Friday is the last day of the designated seed corn week. A great many farmers have already selected their seed corn and more would select if it were not for the work of sowing wheat now at hand. With the memory of seed corn at $10.00 per bushel last spring the average farmer required little urging to beat the frost.

Circulars have been distributed through the schools of the county and doubtless every farmer in the county is aware that this is seed corn week.

Farmers Busy Seeding Wheat During the past two days the county agent has made farm visits and given demonstrations in regard to the treatment of wheat for stinking smut in the southern and western part of the county. Everywhere the farmers are busily at work drilling in the wheat. The grain is going into the ground under very favorable circumstances. Without exception, the ground seeded in wheat has been well prepared, the seed carefully selected and well sown. At the present time, it looks as though we are going to have from 33-1-3 to 50 per cent increase in the acreage of winter wheat in Morgan county.

Hog Cholera An inquiry, against the veterinarians of our county, reveals the fact that the most of our farmers are regarding vaccination as a cheap insurance and are vaccinating the pigs shortly after weaning with the double treatment. Dr. Huggins, in his recent visit to this county said that if the farmers would vaccinate their hogs when he directed that they would guarantee that they would save 95 per cent of their hogs. He advised farmers to insist on serum being used that has a certificate on the outside of the bottle showing that it has been prepared in a plant licensed by the United States government.

Poultry Demonstration Frank L. Platt, Extension Poultry Husbandman, of the United States department of agriculture, will be in Jacksonville on Monday, Sept. 30th to give a demonstration on the proper method of culling a flock. Arrangements will be made with some nearby farmer to pen up his hens on that day and have Mr. Platt pick out the promising layers in much the same manner that the stock judge selects the dairy cows or other animals of good type. Mr. Platt has been very successful in selecting the layers by this system. An invitation will be extended to all interested parties to attend these demonstrations just as soon as the farmer is found who has the flock.

We are in this fight to win!

Believing that it is the duty of every person who enjoys the freedom and privileges of citizenship in our great Country to do his utmost to help win the war, the following firms and individuals have patriotically contributed the money to pay for this and other advertisements of the Fourth Liberty Loan:

We are winning right now.

We started at Chateau Thierry and we will finish in Germany. We are going to win if it takes ten million men, and ten years to do it.

We can win next year, and save hundreds of thousands of our boys if we hurry.

A gigantic American army is in the making—one third over there—one third training here—one third waiting the call.

All that is needed is a little time and a lot of money. The money must mostly come from the sale of Liberty Bonds. We must buy them.

Be a Volunteer—Buy 4th Liberty Bonds September 28-29 will be Volunteer Days

On these days everyone will be given an opportunity to step up and buy bonds without being solicited to do so. Places will be designated where volunteer subscriptions will be received. These places will be announced in the papers and by signs. Your card will be on file there. Cards of those who do not volunteer will be used for active solicitation, which will begin Monday, September 30th. No one will be overlooked.

Do not wait for some one to come after your subscription. Show that you, too, can volunteer for your Country's service, just as our boys "over there" did.

Figure out now the very maximum you can subscribe. Be ready when Volunteer Days come. This is no time for half-way measures. Half-way measures won't push our boys across the Rhine. It is up to us to buy bonds with every uninvested dollar we own, plus every dollar we can save by careful, frugal living for six months to come.

You don't have to pay all cash for your bonds. You can make your first payment from cash in the bank, and take care of the balance out of your daily, weekly or monthly savings.

The forced saving you do now will mean a nice nest egg later, for the bonds you buy now and pay for as you go along, will prove a splendid investment that will pay you a good interest every six months. After the war, the bonds will be worth more than you paid for them. Don't hesitate to do your duty and do it quickly. "Don't let the SON go down."

THOUGHT HIS TIME HAD COME — DISAPPOINTED

"I never was more surprised in my life than when I took the first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. My stomach trouble had been of eight years' standing, sometimes so bad as to cause convulsions, followed by hemorrhage. I thought my time in this world was short, and believed it the last medicine I would ever take. It is now eight weeks since, and I am feeling better than for many years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by Coover & Shreve's East Side Drug Co., and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

ARTILLERY AND THE WORLD WAR

(By Thomas L. Johnson)

As to the aeroplane, artillery and will play the most important part in this war. In 1914, the great German advance was artillery that paved the way for the German army. The British and French, causing them to lose many men in minor attacks which the territorial gain did not exceed more than three miles, as in the Battle of Loos, 1915. The British lost in casualties (killed, wounded and missing) over 70,000 men and gained about three miles in seven miles front.

It is to be remembered that the British did not have any where the amount of guns, both large and small, that the Germans had at that time, otherwise the amount of casualties would not have been so large. An artillery preparation for a couple of days before the attack, but the British, and got into the German trenches, we found that our shells did not penetrate the German dugouts, and that altogether did very little damage.

An artillery preparation before an attack is used, for the purpose of tearing up the wire in front of the trenches, and blowing in the dugouts, and killing the men that are in them, taking cover from the artillery fire, and so eliminating as many of the enemy as possible before the actual fighting comes and that is at zero hour. The zero hour is the hour which the infantry to use the gas, term (goes over the top) when at the Battle of Loos, most so many men in getting into the German trenches we found reason, when we finally arrived there. The Germans took in their dug-outs and as guns did not damage their dugouts much, they were safe when the lull, just before the attack came (just before the attack by the infantry), the artillery stops for a few seconds to clear the range and fire on the enemy line, while the attack is on, the first line and this killed the lull. The Germans out of their dug-outs, bringing their machine guns with them just mowed our men down.

During the Battle of the Somme, exactly the reverse happened. There we had guns of all calibers in abundance, more than the Germans ever had. It was at the Battle of the Somme, 1916, and Mometz that dug-out 50 and 60 feet deep, were in, just as if they were a foot or two thick, and was left of the concrete, the Germans had there, unrecognizable. The German mans claimed that that position was impregnable, still, during the first week of the Somme attack we lost only 60,000 and we gained about six miles of ground on a 20 mile front. There is the difference plainly shows itself.

Again the French at Verdun beat off the Germans by sheer weight of artillery, if the French had not had the large number of 75s and 155s, they would have lost Verdun and the war might have been over now, but as it was they not only kept the Germans from Verdun, but weakened them so much that in June 1916, they regained in four days the ground it took the Germans the months of February, March, April and May to take.

It was the concentration of a very large number of batteries of artillery on a comparatively small front that enabled the Germans to make the drive in the spring of this year and it was artillery that is driving them back, always back now.

There is nothing that the boys in the trenches like to hear so much, as the whistle of the shells from their guns going towards the German lines and hearing the thud and seeing the great big cloud of earth go up in the air when the shell explodes. It lets them know that there is something behind them backing them up and giving more than they are receiving. Now we send the Germans five shells for every one they send us.

It was the German large caliber guns 12, 14, 15 and 17 inch Howitzers that smashed the forts at Lorene, Liege, Namur and many other places in Belgium, guns that no one knew anything about, and especially so with the 42 centimeters commonly called 17 inch gun. It was a well kept secret and it did not require many shells from these guns to crumble up the ancient forts, with their obsolete guns. They were obsolete because they were placed in the forts in 1855 and never renewed for "were the Belgians not safe?" Germany signed the treaty guaranteeing the neutrality of Belgium, so what was there to fear from Germany? That was the argument in the Belgium Chamber of Deputies when the question of new armaments for the forts came up.

The Germans would not have got thru Belgium under three months were it not for their artillery as it was they got thru in 3 weeks. That is the difference artillery makes to an army. In stationary or trench warfare, artillery is always active, the enemy giving us no peace and ours not giving the Germans any. During 1914 and 1915, the Germans sent over 4 or 5 shells for every one we sent over to them. After that it evened up a little and during the "Battle of the Somme" prisoners that we captured paid our artillery the greatest compliment that was possible. When asked what they thought of our artillery fire, and whether it was as warm as what they used to send over to us, said "harrage, you don't know what it is, you have never received so terrible a fire, as we have had the last week. And as for accuracy, it could not be beaten. I never thought that it was possible." It was a high German artillery officer that made that remark, so I have no doubt that it was a bit warm.

Every junior officer (up to rank of captain) with a battery has a turn in the trenches as F. O. O. (Forward observing officer). He remains in the front line trench in some observation post, and there with telephone and telegraph instruments directs the fire of his battery on the German trenches. His personnel consists of two telephone operators and six runners or messengers (in case his wives back he sends written messages back).

to his battery until the break is found and repaired. In open warfare, there are also two signallers with him. At times the F. O. O. has to get out into "No Man's Land" in some shell hole or behind some ruin to direct his fire.

When he observes some new section of trench that has just been built, he telephones back to the battery, gives them the range, corrects it after the first shell, then in two or three minutes that new section of German trench is wiped out, perhaps it is again repaired during the night, but as sure as the sun rises the following day, it is wiped out of existence again as soon as the F. O. O. spot it.

I have known of a certain section of trench in a sector in Belgium that our snipers wanted open for them to pick Germans off. It was in a bend of trench that the Germans had to pass to get into their communication trenches. They explained to the F. O. O. rapid fire on it. It remained open that day during the night, the Germans repaired it, the following day it was blown open again. Again it was repaired that night and again it was blown open. So it went for about a week, then the Germans evacuated that section of trench too warm to hold.

It was not until Lloyd George was made minister of munitions in England that things started humming and the army was sent its right amount of supplies. Before then the British Tommy had to lay in his trench close up to the wall and just cover under the German shell fire. With the satisfaction in hearing only one shell from his guns in answer to 5 or 6 of the Germans. It was discouraging, we commenced to think, that we were forgotten out there in trenches. We sent up flares and other forms of signals calling for barrage and relief, but none came. The artillery only had a certain amount of shells and those had to last a certain length of time and they could only fire at certain periods. The people in England were too confident, so confident that they paid very little attention to what was going on. They knew that we would win the war and that was all that mattered.

During 1915 Lord Northcliffe, (the owner of many newspapers in England, who has since been in the United States on a mission from his government) visited the battlefields in France and saw the shortage of guns, shells, machine guns, and commenced to publish articles in his papers on those subjects and kept on until the government and the people woke up. Lloyd George was made minister of munitions. The first thing he did was to commandeer many munition factories and started to turn out guns and shells in large quantities and to ship unlimited supplies to France. It was he that made the Battle of the Somme possible because he supplied the guns and shells for it and it was also he that put confidence in the troops by sending over unlimited supplies.

From that time to the present, the British armies have had unlimited supplies of shells for their guns and will keep on having them while the war lasts, because the British have learned their lesson. They have found out what it is to be without shells to protect their boys in the trenches. The casualty lists have taught them that much. They are together now Duke, Lord and manufacturer, shop-keeper and laborer. There is no class distinction now, its all for victory. All working for the same end to bring their boys home victorious. The English laborer works seven days a week and twelve hours a day for 35 or 50 shillings (9 to 10 dollars) a week, four or five, still at the end of a month he has managed to save and scrip 17 shillings and supence (about $4.30) together and buy a war saving certificate at his post office, just to help win the war. How he does it is impossible to tell, but he does. The Frenchman has no money, just as soon as he gets it, its loaned to his government also to help win the war. I have seen French men and women, society people before the war, and who have not bought a single stitch of clothing since the war commenced because they loaned all their money to bring the war to a successful end and will keep on doing so until the war has been won.

What are you doing for your government and for your boy "Over There"? Are you helping the government with your money? We cannot all be soldiers or sailors or Red Cross nurses, but we can all work and save and lend what we have saved. Its really only a loan, paying a better rate of interest than your bank, and you have the soundest security in the world to cover it. At the same time you have the satisfaction of knowing that you are standing behind your boy and helping him beat that brute, the German.

What does that well known saying "Obey that impulse" advertise? Whatever it does it also means, "Obey that impulse" and buy Liberty Bonds. You must have that impulse, for you are an American. Its only Germans and Pro-Germans that have not got it. Go around to the bank and ask them about it.

LIEUT. M'GINNIS WILL COME SATURDAY

Wires That He Will Arrive at 10 A. M. With Another Aviation Officer — Landing Field in South Jacksonville.

Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., Sept. 26, 1918. Liberty Loan Committee, Jacksonville, Ill.

With Lieut. Frandemont, my passenger will arrive Jacksonville 10 o'clock Saturday morning. This was the telegram received last night by the Liberty Loan committee, making definite statement that Lieut. Harold A. McGinnis will come to Jacksonville Saturday in his aeroplane to assist in advertising for the Liberty Loan campaign which is to open on that date. The committee had previously procured promise from Lieut. McGinnis to come if possible but absolute promise was not made until the receipt of this telegram. The landing field will be on the South land near the corner of South Main street and the Vandalla road. However, Lieut. McGinnis and his companion officer will doubtless fly about the business district of Jacksonville at intervals during the day.

The only agreement the Liberty Loan committee was required to make was that ample police protection should be afforded at the landing field, as it is very necessary that people be kept from in any way interfering with the aeroplane. This is in accordance with the U. S. army rule.

With the aeroplane demonstration and a service "parade" the opening day of the Liberty Loan campaign will undoubtedly stand out very boldly in Jacksonville history.

A GRAND TEMPERANCE RALLY

Next Week, Friday at the Central Christian Church.

The ministerial association of the city has arranged for a grand unified win the war temperance rally at the Central Christian church next Friday evening, October 4th. The noted and eloquent Hon. Richmond P. Hobson will be the orator of the occasion. The following paragraphs comprise some of Mr. Hobson's utterances:

"America's permanent control of the seas is not only our own best means of protection in case of war, our real guarantee against war, whether direct or indirect, when others are at war, but it is the firm means for the protection of the rights of the weak, the rights of humanity and is the real road leading to justice between nations and ultimately to peace upon earth and the brotherhood of men.

"Any living organism to survive must remain in harmony with the laws of nature, the most fundamental of which is the law of development or evolution.

Science has recently discovered that alcohol is the specific for degeneracy and causes any living thing to go backward, bringing down the curse of nature, the shortening of the life and the blighting of the offspring.

"A young man starting at the age of 20 and living a total abstainer attains the average age of 65; as a temperate drinker he dies at 51; as a heavy drinker he dies at the age of 35. Twice as many men die between the ages of 25 and 35 as would die if there were no liquor. The nation needs these young men. Three times as many men die between 35 and 45 as would die if there were no liquor. The nation needs these men in their prime.

"If both parents are total abstainers, nine out of ten of their children are normal. If they are both alcoholic, only one out of six is normal. A nation debauched by alcohol must perish. Every civilized government now realizes that real preparedness demands first of all that a nation be sober.

A dry America in permanent control of the sea is the real foundation for our preparedness and for our greatest contribution to the cause of peace in the world."

JUNIOR RED CROSS CHAIRMAN RECEIVES ORDER FOR SHIPMENT OF NUTS FOR GAS MASKS

All schools in Morgan county having Junior Red Cross Associations or having collected nuts for the making of gas masks are to see that the nuts are hulled, thoroughly dried, and packed in boxes, barrels or sacks and addressed to the Central Division Headquarters, American Red Cross, 180 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Illinois. They should be delivered to the freight station and sent "freight collect." A recent notice indicates the desirability of shipping all thoroughly dried nuts at once.

There is no need of nuts being shipped with good kernels in them. Children who care to should be given the privilege of cracking the nuts and securing the kernels for food. It has been suggested that some of the schools have cracking parties, pick out the good kernels and sell them to the grocery or confectionery dealers where they ordinarily bring a good price per pound. Thus the funds of the Junior Red Cross Association can be increased.

The government needs 500 tons of nuts daily. This means shipment at once.

He approved the situation as he found it and the way in which the school was being conducted. This means that the accrediting relations of the school remain absolutely standard. The inspector was agreeably surprised at the efficiency displayed in taking care of a school of 424 students under unusual circumstances.

The following letter was sent out yesterday:
Dear Sir:
We have just received added instructions that the order of the Fuel Administrator in regard to the non-use of automobiles on Sunday be strictly observed, except those cases which appear to be necessary for the success of the Liberty Loan.

This letter will be your authority to use autos on the Volunteer Sunday, September 29th, for the limited use only on taking speakers to the Sunday meetings at churches, or similar necessary requirements in the Liberty Loan work, in such cases we should suggest that a placard be written and pasted on the window-shield, "By Authority Liberty Loan Work."

Will you kindly see this matter is handled accordingly?
Very truly yours,
M. F. Dunlap,
County Chairman.

By H. M. Capps,
Vice-Chr. and Gen'l Mgr.

The Duty of the Hour

The Fourth Liberty Loan is the world's biggest drive back of the lines. It is the test of the financial reserves of this entire country of ours. It will gauge the power that you intend to put back of the fighting men in France for the next half year or more to come.

In fact it will show the value YOU place on the heritage of liberty, which three million men have taken up arms to defend for YOU today.

Take care when you sign that subscription blank for Liberty Bonds that the amount you set squares as nearly as it can with all your heart acknowledges this heritage to be worth to you.
